

PTSO Childcare Gives Moms A Shopping Day

Lansing PTSO volunteers Pat Trotter, Joann Carlson and the Lady Bobcat Basketball Teams provided daycare to nearly 30 youngsters, aged 3 to 10, last Saturday from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm at the Raymond C. Buckley Elementary School.

The special Saturday daycare program was developed by the PTSO to give parents a breather at the outset of the holiday shopping season.

With the help of the girls basketball team, the children were entertained and played games all day long in the art room, cafeteria and gym. The children brought their own lunches and the PTSO provided snacks.

Junior Varsity basketball players who helped take care of the children included Billie Boles, Chrissy Burke, Lindsey Dean, Janna Doucette, Sheli Grooms, Christie Kemple, Danielle LaVigne, Deanna McMillen, Megan Netherton, Shannon Sullivan, Tami Swearingen, Lindsay Warren, Sarah Willard and Jenn Olin.

Varsity players included Dixie Chaffee, Carolyn Childers, Katie Crandall, Rachel Jackson, Allanna McMillen, Amanda Moore and Devon Lucas.

Fire District Election Set for December 10

Lansing Fire District Secretary Linda Beckwith reports that two names have been filed by the November 20 deadline to run for one seat on the five-person Board of Fire Commissioners in the upcoming December 10 election.

Incumbent Commissioner Dennis Griffin will face Larry Cooper for election to the five-year post. Mrs. Beckwith, who also serves as District Treasurer, will be running unopposed for re-election to this post.

Polls will be open from 4:00 to 9:00 pm at the Oakcrest Road Fire Station # 5 and Central Fire Station. For further information, call 533-4204 between 8 and noon on Wednesday or Friday.

Mssrs. Griffin and Cooper have been invited to present their views in the next Lansing Community News.
