Joy To The World !!

CHRISTMAS IN AURORA - December 14 was a daylong festival of theater, ice-sculpting, candlemaking, storytelling, dancing and magic shows. Here, Wells College students and local residents join for traditional caroling on Main Street.

EVERYONE PARTICIPATED at the December 20 Elementary School Program. In addition to dancing and singing traditional Christmas songs, parents and students heard the "Nigerian Boat Song" honoring the African-American harvest festival of Kwanza.

COPS, KIDS & TOYS - Lansing's Randy Bowman and children, Julie and Jon, load Christmas gifts for 53 Lansing kids. According to Dave Bush, nearly 1000 youngsters received gifts this year thanks to law enforcement agencies and the public's generosity.

SUGAR PLUM FAIRIES have been dancing to the strains of Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite for 105 years. The master would be happy to see it in Lansing.

SNOW IS COMING - Merry Christmas everyone.

THEY WHO SERVE ALSO WAIT - Now that their guests have gone to post-banquet entertainment, the church's volunteer waiters enjoy the holiday fare.

MARCH OF THE TOY SOLDIERS - Good triumphs over evil as the Nutcracker's toy soldiers duel until they overcome the nefarious Mouse King and his minions of ravaging rodents.

ICE SCULPTOR - Todd Field, of King Ferry, used a chainsaw to carve a holiday snowman of ice on the steps of the Aurora Inn December 14.

RUSSIAN BAKERS CONFECT holiday delights in the Kingdom of Sweets for Fritz, Marie and all the little boys and girls of all ages everywhere.

For the Holidays, give your children the Gift of Knowledge and Discovery. Give them a Computer and the Internet!
