Howe Kids Win CSB Stocking Lottery

by Christan Jones

Recently, the Cayuga Savings Bank on East Shore Drive held a Christmas Contest. Fourteen year old Tiffany Howe of Lansing and her eight year old brother Jonathan entered both their names. Neither Tiffany nor Jonathan had ever won a contest before.

On Friday, December 13th, the drawing was held and on Monday, December 16th Tiffany received word that she was the winner.

The three foot tall stocking she was awarded contained 15 wrapped gifts and a 50 dollar United States savings bond. The gifts consisted of four games, two coloring books, crayons, colored pencils, a stencil kit, several containers of Play Dough and a toy cellular phone. This is living proof that bad things don't always happen on Friday the 13th.

Congratulations Tiffany.

Christian Jones is a Freshman in Mrs. Martin's English class at Lansing High School.

Lansing Students Share Bounty With Food Pantry

More than than 70 boxes of dried, canned and packaged food goods were contributed by students from Lansing's three schools for Christmas boxes that will be distributed to area families by volunteers of the Lansing Food Pantry.

In addition to the food, several made donations to the "Christmas Giving Tree" program run by All Saints R.C. Church and the Lansing United Methodist Church to provide gifts to area children who might otherwise have an empty stocking.
