Sr. Nights Honor Hoopsters

Ceremonies at the boys and girls final home varsity basketball games honored the young men and women who've led the Bobcats over the past years.

The boys' Tuesday final home game against Groton was joy for seniors Lucas Hibbard, Heremy House, Jacob Linderberry, Kyle Putnam and cheerleader Jamie Werner as Lansing topped Groton 56-45.

Prior to the girls final home game with

Marathon on Friday, Principal Bill Rankin honored seniors Tina Ellis, Allanna McMillen, Devon Luca and Carolyn Childers and their parents.

In citing their academic and extracurricular achievements, Rankin noted that these are not one-dimensional athletes but well-rounded young women with extracurricular and community experiences who will all be going on to college next year.

Kids' Puzzle Corner

Hello everybody,

by J-P

Today's puzzle is a contest for kids UNDER TEN YEARS OLD. See how much you know while having fun and maybe you can win your choice of two prizes. Using the categories along the top, fill in the boxes below with words that start with the letter on the right of the row. You may write one or more words in each box.

The three kids with the most correct answers will win their choice of:

- A) 10 older mint U.S. postage stamps for your collection, or
- B) 2 packets of seeds for your summer garden.

Send the completed puzzle with your name and address to: J-P, 204 Wilson Road, Lansing, NY 14882.
