Girls' Hockey Association To Hold Pancake Breakfast on March 15th

By Denise L. Kaminsky

Have you heard? Ice hockey is not just for boys anymore. About 100 girls between the ages of 8 and 18 meet at the RINK for some serious workouts, games and, of course, some fun.

On Saturday, March 15, the girls will be holding a fund-raising pancake breakfast at the Moose Lodge in Ithaca to raise money to cover entrance fees at the giant hockey tournament that will be held in Brampton, Ontario (Canada) at the end of March.

The girls are members of Tompkins Girls Hockey Association (TGHA), currently celebrating its 25th anniversary. The TGHA is geared for all skill levels with five teams divided into two divisions by age, ability and experience.

The girls, including Lansing's Christina Writers' Guild Workshop

A free Creative Writing Workshop will be held at TC-3 on Thursday, April 3 from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Though there's no charge, pre-registration by March 10 is required. Call Ron Starmer or Bernard Early at 844-8211.

Valasente, Jessie Kaminsky, Jessica LaFave, Julie Bowman and Megan Munson, meet twice weekly to hone their skills and to play matches.

Those girls interested in playing several travel games play with the Silver Stars teams. They play teams in neighboring counties where they can really demonstrate what they've learned.

The most capable and serious girls are on the Shooting Stars. With many victories to their credit against teams throughout New York and Pennsylvania, they're hoping for an outpouring of community support for their tournament adventure in the Great North of neighboring Canada.

The TGHA is always looking for new players, coaches and sponsors and there are (at least) two ways you can learn about them. If you're on the World Wide Web, visit their website at <http://www.compcenter.com/TGHA> to check out the action. But whether or not you have a computer, consider coming to the pancake breakfast to meet the girls and support our youth.

To buy a ticket or for further information, contact any of the Lansing girls or call Steven Yale-Loehr at 257-4124.
